

MINNESOTA SOYBEAN PROCESSORS
MEMBER'S DESIGNATION OF RELATED ENTITY TO DELIVER SOYBEANS

1. Member designates (or hereby confirms its designation of) Designee to deliver soybeans to Cooperative on behalf of Member in partial or complete satisfaction of Member's production and delivery commitment to the Cooperative under the Cooperative's Uniform Marketing and Delivery Agreement ("UMDA"). This designation shall be effective for the processing year (as defined in the UMDA) in which this designation is delivered to and accepted by Cooperative and for each processing year thereafter until terminated by either Member or Designee by delivering written termination notice to Cooperative.
2. Designee is a producer of agricultural products or an association of such producers, will deliver soybeans in accordance with this designation, has read the UMDA, and will comply with its terms as if it was a member of the Cooperative with respect to the delivery of the committed bushels. Designee is a related person to the Member as defined in the Cooperative's Bylaws (section 11.05 and any successor provision thereto).
3. Member remains obligated under the UMDA if Designee fails to perform as required.
4. Cooperative will pay Designee the same transfer price at the same times as the Member would have been paid had it delivered the soybeans. Member is entitled to any additional entitlements with respect to soybean deliveries under this designation, including all delivery premiums paid on actual deliveries of committed bushels by members or their authorized designees and patronage dividends.
5. Cooperative will accept delivery from Designee under this designation and make entries on records to reflect delivery in partial or complete satisfaction of Member's production and delivery commitment under the UMDA.
